That's a wrap...

As Summer comes to an end, so has The Summer Twilight Series. Last week was the ending of a successful three sessions of fantastic speakers and a great opportunity for professionals to interact. Thank you to UConn Extension and the Risk Management Agency for organizing this event. Northern Nurseries, Soundview Landscape and Kogut Nursery all did a great job in hosting each session. Dr. W. Michael Sullivan, Dr. Dewayne Ingram and Jesse Rodrigues were all very skillful speakers to educate professionals on important topics in our field. We look forward to what next year will have in store for everyone.
