

Landscape Architect / Designer and Sales Professional (New Canaan)

Landscape Architect / Designer and Sales Professional to join our team. We design and build creative, integrated landscape plans for high-end residential clients.

Candidates should have a proven record in residential landscape design and sales with the ability to present and communicate to a sophisticated client base. Autocad or equivalent software abilities a plus. Designing and selling landscapes with style for the high-end residential market key!

Applicants with a landscape design, landscape architecture background or exterior design are appropriate for this position.

You'll find us in New Canaan in an attractive work environment with industry leading salary and benefits-- including: 401K Plan -Profit Sharing - Pension, plus.

Candidates should forward resumes and letter of interest.

The Elise Design Group and Elise Landscapes & Nursery is an established award winning Landscape Design and Build firm serving the greater Fairfield County area. Our company provides high quality, innovative landscape design, construction and maintenance services as well as retailing landscape plantings, unique garden elements and furnishings. Established 1983.

Position Requirements:

Minimum of 5 years, high-end residential landscape design and/or sales experience

Degree in Landscape Design/Architecture/interior design preferred

The ability to present and communicate design concepts clearly to a sophisticated client base.

Proficiency with landscape design software and related office software

General knowledge of permitting and zoning processes

Desire to grow professionally

Please submit resume by email design@eliselandscapes.com

Or call us at 203-966-3200